1.2 Australian quality standards

Being a Registered Training Organisation (RTO) means our training programs are nationally recognised and comply with The ‘VET Quality Framework’, which includes Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTO’s) 2015. The quality of our training is rigorously monitored and audited to ensure we provide a high standard of quality service.

We offer Certificate II to Diploma level courses, specifically designed to align course outcomes with the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF).

1.3 Commitment needed from you

To ensure you are successful in your flexible learning program you will need the following:

- Motivation to learn.
- Good time management so you can structure your study time.
- Realistic goals and objectives.
- Computer technology and internet access.
- Language and literacy skills to complete your course.

As a student with AOT you are required to do the following:

- Ensure that all the information provided to AOT is accurate.
- Notify AOT of any personal contact detail changes (email, phone, address etc.) as soon as possible. Our contact with you is vital; keeping AOT up-to-date with your details is a must so we can provide our quality service to you.
- Advise AOT of any difficulties or problems you may experience with AOT staff, procedures or training via feedback through our online contact us form.
- Achieve satisfactory progress with your studies through participation as required.
- Submit your own work, it is important that you do NOT submit or claim any work derived from another source or work done by another person that has not been referenced.
- Keep a copy of all assessments and any work submitted electronically for your own records.
- Manage your time to complete your course of study in the allocated time frame.
- Be aware that additional costs are incurred for extension of the study period if course has not been completed in the agreed allocated time frame.
- Write assessment responses in your own words. Copying directly from the learning content only shows that you know where to find the information, it does not demonstrate your understanding of the topic.

1.4 Our training guarantee

AOT has responsibilities to you as the student, to offer a quality of service that will assist you as much as possible in attaining your qualification.

We endeavour to abide by all our policies and procedures to ensure effective management of student engagement, enhancing the learning process and outcomes through successful student contact, which will build rapport and aid in student retention.

With the provision of industry current, qualified trainers and assessors, AOT can provide a supportive, professional learning environment.
We are committed to helping you successfully complete your studies and look forward to helping you achieve your learning goals.

- Live chat - rate your live chat session and provide feedback
- Appointy booking calendar - rate your appointment and provide feedback
- Contact us form - found within your click on ‘Feedback/compliments’ to share your comments

1.6 Quality indicator feedback form
As part of our RTO obligations to meet the Data Provision Requirements 2012, AOT provide annual summary data to the Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA), to report on learner engagement and employer satisfaction.

The following questionnaires are issued at the end of enrolment.

- Learner Questionnaire

  At the close of your enrolment you will receive a Learner Questionnaire. This information is valuable for us for continuous improvement.

- Employer Questionnaire

  Employers that enrol staff into courses as part of professional development are supplied with an employer satisfaction questionnaire.

1.7 Unique Student Identifier (USI)
You need a USI upon enrolment with AOT as part of our legislative reporting requirements of a registered training organisation. We cannot issue a qualification or Statement of Attainment without a USI.

From 1st January, 2015 new legislation by the Australian Government advised that each person undertaking nationally recognised training are required to have a Unique Student Identifier (USI). This must be collected and verified by the training organisation.

It is a mandatory requirement to provide your USI as part of your enrolment with AOT if you are:

- An Australian ex pat or resident (you need a USI even if you do the course whilst living outside Australia).
- International student living in Australia

International students not living in Australia are not required to submit a USI.

If you do not already have one, click here to create your USI https://www.usi.gov.au/students
2. Student support services

2.1 Learning support – Language, Literacy and Numeracy (LLN)

So that AOT may better assess the needs and level of support a student may require, all students enrolled into full qualifications must complete an LLN assessment, inside the AOT learning management system, prior to being given access to their course.

LLN assessments are designed and developed in accordance with the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) and the Australian Core Skills Framework (ACSF) to ensure each LLN assessment is at the appropriate level for the course.

As a student, you will have full access to our mentors on live chat through a link in your course. Mentors can assist with your understanding of the content, or tasks required to be completed, or helping you to adjust to the world of study. You may also book time with your trainer and assessor within the virtual classroom.

2.2 Specialist support

The team at AOT are here to assist you as much as possible, through Live Chat and booked sessions with your trainer. We can assist you to better understand the learning content, or assessment tasks required to be completed. In the beginning you may feel you just need a little help adjusting to the world of study.

For additional assistance, outside of our area of expertise, we suggest that students contact external organisations offering specialised services aligned with their particular needs. This may be for specific support learning or for more personal issues which may impact on their learning.

You may also book a scheduled time with a mentor or your assessor within the virtual classroom. Just click on the Virtual Classroom link in your course and follow the prompts.

To further assist you we have provided some organisations that may help you in LLN or other issues that may impact on your learning.

Thank you for the opportunity of supporting you, we look forward to working with you as you progress through your course.

2.4 Reasonable adjustment

A legislative and regulatory framework underpins and supports the delivery of vocational education and training across Australia.

Under this framework, providers of vocational education and training must take steps to ensure that where appropriate, reasonable adjustments are applied by the RTO to take into account the individual learner’s needs.

Sometimes reasonable adjustments are made to the learning environment, training delivery, learning resources and/or assessment tasks to accommodate the particular needs of a learner with a disability. An adjustment is reasonable if it can accommodate the learner’s particular needs, while also taking into account factors such as: the views of the learner; the potential effect of the adjustment on the learner and others; the costs and benefits of making the adjustment.

As an RTO we must also comply with the requirements of the Disability Discrimination Act 1992 and the Disability Standards for Education 2005.

To ensure fair access and equity, the assessor may make reasonable adjustment to the training and assessment activities for a particular student, to ensure the best learning outcome for that student.

Adjustments must:
- be discussed and agreed to by the learner with a disability
- benefit the learner with a disability
- maintain the competency standards
- be reasonable to expect in a workplace.

Adjustments are not required if they could:
- cause the RTO unjustifiable hardship
- harm other learners.

3. Assessment

Submitted assessments will be assessed and returned, with feedback, to the student within five (5) business days.

All assessment tasks within a unit of competency must be successfully completed to be deemed as Competent. Students are provided with three (3) attempts at each assessment task to achieve a satisfactory outcome of that task, and are provided with written feedback and guidance following each attempt.
Please refer to the Policies/Procedures section of this handbook to review the appeals process.

Some assessments require a meeting with your assessor, these are completed through a virtual classroom (online).

Virtual classroom assessment takes place at a mutually agreed time between the student and the assessor through ‘GoToMeeting’ software. The following will then occur:

i. An email confirmation is to be sent immediately the appointment is made.
ii. Students will receive a reminder email twenty four (24) hours prior to the assessment appointment, and;
iii. The assessor is to send the student a GoToMeeting invite ten (10) minutes prior.

3.1 Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

AOT acknowledges the skills and knowledge gained through previous studies, work and life experience. To be deemed as eligible for RPL, students must undertake an interview with an assessor and submit the required evidence. Each RPL application is based on individual units of competence and is assessed according to the relevant training package rules.

AOT ensures that the total evidence provided by the student demonstrates she or he already has current skills and knowledge in all requirements of the unit.

The following may also be taken into account during your assessment:

- your performance in paid and unpaid work experience
- results from formal or informal training and education.

To have your prior learning recognised, you must be able to show that your skills are still current and meet today’s industry standards. You will need to produce recent evidence of your skills and knowledge. You will also need to provide contact details of people who can confirm your abilities. These people might be supervisors or others who have seen your skills in action.

All evidence provided must be clearly labelled and demonstrate your involvement in the topic. You are also required to submit an evidence checklist which lists each piece of evidence submitted for RPL assessment.

3.2 How to apply for RPL

Book an appointment with one of our trainers and assessors using our online booking calendar. Instructions can be found under ‘Help and Support’, in the side bar of your sauceLMS dashboard.

3.3 Credit transfer

AOT accepts and provides credit to students for units of competency which are evidenced by:

- AQF certification documentation issued by any other RTO or AQF authorised issuing organisation, or authenticated VET transcripts issued by the Registrar.

With student authorisation, AOT will authenticate each Qualification, Statement of Attainment with a record of results by contacting the organisation that issued the document and confirming the content is valid.
AOT follows the definition of currency as ‘from the present or the very recent past’ the student must be able to demonstrate that they still hold current skills and knowledge in the unit of competence, or equivalent, submitted for credit transfer. To apply for a Credit Transfer, instructions can be found under ‘Help and Support’, in the side bar of your sauceLMS dashboard.

If you would like to know more about Credit Transfer options, prior to enrolment, contact our sales coordinator for more information by clicking on the ‘Live Chat’ icon on our website or calling 1300 72 66 34.

3.4 Timelines for issue of Qualifications and Statement of Attainments

Qualifications will be issued within 21 calendar days of the issue of results unless an appeal against assessment has been lodged.

A certificate will only be re-issued to student on receipt of a written request and payment of fees. Re-issue of certificates will attract a fee of $40.

If there is a delay in payment or return of completed enrolment form, the above timeline may extend.

Course enrolment is complete when AOT issues the student a username and password for online course access.

• AOT and the student or client will agree on a date for online course access, this date will be known as the agreed course commencement date.

• Course duration is effective from the agreed course commencement date.

All students have an orientation period of fourteen (14) days which commences from the date their username and password for online course access has been issued.

Students may enrol, log into their course, conduct the LLN test provided, and trial the course. AOT believe that this fourteen (14) day orientation period allows the student to determine if the level of qualification and mode of delivery is suitable for them. This process also allows our team to assess your needs and provide any necessary support.

If the student or AOT determine within the orientation period that the level of qualification or learning style is not suitable, then the student is withdrawn as per our Refund and Withdrawal Policy.

5.3 Individual Training Plan

An Individual Training Plan (ITP) will be issued to each student, once the enrolment process has been completed. This plan will provide a summary of units and highlight any credit transfers applied.

You are encouraged to complete one unit of competency at a time, before moving on to the next. The order of units in your ITP is the recommended order of study and reflects the order of units listed in your course. If you wish to complete more than one unit at the same time, please discuss this with your trainer, so that you may be guided.
